

POWER OF ATTORNEY

By this power of attorney, I/We....., having an address at....., appoints My IP Global (registered in the commercial register in the Sultanate of Oman under No. 1294814) to act as its attorneys in Afghanistan, Algeria, Bahrain, Gaza, Egypt, Iran, Iraq, Jordan, Kuwait, Lebanon, Libya, Morocco, Oman, Pakistan, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, Sudan, South Sudan, Syria, Tunisia, the United Arab Emirates, the West Bank and Yemen to undertake and carry out all and any steps relating to protecting and enforcing the Company's intellectual and industrial property, trademarks, trade names, copyright, industrial designs, patents and domain names including but not limited to the following steps:

1. conducting and requesting searches of all kinds, including searches of intellectual property registers.
2. filing and withdrawing any documents including but not limited to applications, applications for registration, applications for recordal of mergers, assignments, licenses, pledges and mortgages, applications to make amendments, applications to renew or maintain rights, complaints, objections and oppositions, submissions, statements, counter-statements, memoranda and evidence and to pursue to their conclusion any such matters, before:
 - a) Government Ministries (including but not limited to those Ministries responsible for intellectual property matters).
 - b) Government Authorities (Federal or Local).
 - c) Government Departments (including but not limited to those Departments responsible for intellectual property matters).
 - d) Police Headquarters and Centres and Police Departments.
 - e) Municipalities, their Departments and Committees.
 - f) Public notary offices.
 - g) Ports and Customs Authorities and Departments.
 - h) The Public Prosecution and any of its departments.
3. receiving and responding to correspondence, reports and requests from government ministries and bodies and public authorities.
4. paying all fees including application, publication, registration and renewal fees.

5. initiating and pursuing to their conclusion any and all procedures that the Attorneys deem necessary to protect and enforce the rights of the Company including but not limited to initiating administrative procedures, attending hearings, issuing warning letters and letters of demand, publishing warning notices, carrying out enforcement actions and initiating and completing all procedures associated with such actions, making statements in support of criminal or other legal or administrative proceedings, identifying counterfeit products and witnessing the destruction of counterfeit goods.

6. receiving, collecting, obtaining and acting on any information relating to acts of infringement of the Company's rights and acts of commercial fraud and unfair competition.

7. seeking arbitration, appointing arbitrators and experts and seeking their rejection, accepting their reports or objecting to the same and to conclude settlements, relinquish claims, sign admissions, discharges, pursue execution, assign, receive and disburse moneys, abandon suits, and sign the necessary documents on behalf of the Company.

8. representing the Company before all public authorities and courts of whatever type or degree, whether criminal, administrative, civil, commercial or otherwise, to:

a) plead, defend and file motions on behalf of the Company.

b) move for ordinary and extraordinary measures or orders.

c) submit petitions and briefs, on amendment, demurrer, retrial or third party objection or any other legal procedures.

d) submit, receive and retrieve all documents wherever and whatever they may be, and to receive notification and serve notice.

e) deliver and retrieve documents, orders, documents and contracts, both official and unofficial, to and from court clerks and administrative authorities, to sign in acknowledgment of receipt of all the foregoing, to declare loss of documents, to sign minutes of contraventions.

f) to conciliate, attest, admit, deny and discharge.

g) petition for seizure and for lifting of the same.

h) request pledge and attachment orders, and to oppose such orders.

i) file complaints in criminal suits, to file cases and waive them or to drop disputes, to challenge for forgery, to move for administration of the decisory oath and to accept or reject such oath.

j) file protests, petitions, dilatory objections and appeals in civil, criminal, administrative and commercial cases.

- k) raise and contest judgments to the Supreme Courts.
- l) seek imprisonment, apply for release from detention and sign such applications.
- m) seek the enforcement of personal rights and claim damages.
- n) appoint experts, name witnesses and reject them, elect domicile, request oath taking and decline the same.
- o) issue summonses and notices.
- p) conclude settlements, relinquish claims, abandon suits and sign admissions and discharges.
- q) assign, receive and disburse monies, including court deposits.
- r) obtain judgments and decisions and pursue their enforcement through all legal and proper channels.
- s) appear before the Court of Administrative Jurisdiction (Council of State) and commercial courts.
- t) undertake any other court procedures.

9. The Company also authorizes the Attorneys to appoint substitutes and to delegate to them any powers given to the Attorneys under this power, in all the countries mentioned in this document, and will confirm and ratify what the Attorneys and their substitutes lawfully do pursuant to the Company's instructions.

Signed in:

Date:

Name:

Designation:

Signature: